

Isaiah 53:1-5 The Savior Suffered Punishment that Brought Peace to People.

Melody by Dr. George F. Howe

Who be-lieves our re-port? And to whom is the arm of the Lord re-vealed?
He comes up be-fore Him like a sap-ling, and like a root-sprout from a dry ground. He has no form or hon-or when we shall see Him, no ap-per-ance of beau-ty that we should de-si-re Him. He is de-spised, shunned by men Man of pains and know-ing sick-ness, and like one hid-ing His face from us. He is de-spised and we deem Him of no ac-count. Surely He has borne our ill-ness-es and He is bar-dened with our pains. Yet we con-si-der Him stricken, smit-ten by God and a-flic-ted. Yet He was wound-ed for our transgres-sions and crushed be-cause of our in-i-qui-ties

The pun-ish-ment that brought us peace was on Him and by His welts there is heal-ing for us.
